

IPCI OPENS UMLAZI ISLAM INFO CENTRE

Alhumdullilah in December 2022, the IPCI Ameer, Dr Mahomed Khan, officially opened the IPCI Umlazi Dawah Office. A full time Daeer will be posted to the office, Revert Classes will be conducted and Dawah Material and Qurans will be available to the people interested in Islam from Umlazi. The location is at BUILDRITE Umlazi next to Check Save Supermarket. A landmark to the Dawah Office is the Kwa Myandu Mall about 1 km away. Umlazi Township lies to the South of Durban CBD, approx. 20 Kilometers away, and has over a Million residents.

Friday, 25th November 2022, Dr Haaifah Younis, Jannah Institute, USA, together with her 20 international students visited the IPCI & Ahmed Deedat Memorabilia Centre during the Durban leg of her South African Lecture Tour Series.

IPCI REVERT STORIES

Revert Story Brother Zahir Vinesh Moodley

54 years old, unassuming at first glance, walked in IPCI finding himself in a Spiritual Mid Life Crisis, He hails from Port Elizabeth and found himself in Durban on some soul searching. Alhumdullilah, he found his way to the IPCI, took Shahadah on the 9th of January 2023. Being an avid reader, Brother Zahir Moodley had while spending time at the IPCI Exhibition Centre, had already the Qur'an and several books on Islam and came his decision to embrace the Deen . He has majored in Management and Human Resource Development, he is now a volunteer at IPCI as well as a student in the Revert Classes

"After much honest deliberation and taking some serious consideration, I have decided to pursue my Spirituality 100% instead of prematurely re-entering the corporate world. I believe a solid grounding in my faith is what's required now, at least for the next year or so. I thoroughly enjoy being at the IPCI and feel much peace!
