MARHOOM MOULANA ABUBAKR AKOO

It was with great sadness that the IPCI learnt of the death of one of its Leading Public Speakers, Comparative Religion Specialist and Islamic Scholar Marhoom Moulana Abubakr Akoo from Louis Trichardt, returned to Allah SWT on Thursday, 25 August 2022, at the age of 34, in a horrific accident involving a truck and his car. Marhoom Moulana was the highest achieving student in the history of Darul Uloom Newcastle Aalim course, also completed his Masters Degree in Theology at the University of Johannesburg. He participated in many debates and public lectures for the IPCI and was a dedicated and selfless Islamic Worker and Daee. The IPCI Trustees, Staff and Management wish to express the great loss to the Centre and to the Muslim Community of South Africa. It is our fervent Dua that Allah SWT grant Marhoom Moulana Abubakr Akoo the the Higherst Abode in Jannah.

NATIONAL MOSQUE OPEN DAY

MOSQUES in South Africa held a National Open Day for the local community to come and learn about the Islamic faith and lifestyle. An estimated 100 Masaajid across South Africa open the Doors of their Mosque to other faith communities, on Saturday, September 24 2022, Heritage Day.

The National Mosque open day is one of the initiatives that is held annually. This years National Mosque Open Day was widely Supported by many organisations including:

SAMNET, United Ulama Council of South Africa (UUCSA), Cape Town Ulama Board (CTUB), Imam Development Project, Ahlus Sunnah Media Network and the Islamic Propagation Centre International (IPCI).

Guests were taken on guided tours around the mosque, and speakers gave presentations teaching all about Islam and the day to day happenings in the Mosque, some hosts also held 'Question and Answer' sessions.

VISIT YOUR LOCAL MOSQUE ON HERITAGE DAY

The purpose of the National Open Mosque day is to create community bonds, dispel misconceptions and share commonalities in a spirit of openness and interfaith. We encourage non-Muslims to look up their local mosque to find out if they are hosting an open mosque and visiting with their Muslim community members for a day of friendship and inclusiveness.

24TH SEPTEMBER | 14h00-16h00

Mr. Mahomed Khan
Islamic Propagation Centre International

Kind greetings,

A Request for Research Visitation to your Community

The Research Programme for Religious Communities and Sustainable Development at Humboldt University, Berlin, Germany, in conjunction with the School of Religion, Philosophy and Classics at the University of KwaZulu Natal, Pietermaritzburg, South Africa, is conducting a Master Class entitled, "Development Paradigm in Conversation - Master Class on Religious Communities and Sustainable Development". The Project aims to explore the contribution of religious communities to social transformation through sustainable development. We see it as highly important to include the views and perspectives of your community on this project. A group of researchers from Humboldt University, Germany, and their counterparts at the University of KwaZulu-Natal will be having a two weeks Master Class at the University of KwaZulu - Natal, Pietermaritzburg campus from 9 to 22 August 2022. As part of the event, the researchers would love to visit your community and conduct some interviews for research purposes.

The interview will seek to elicit views regarding the contributions of religious communities to social transformation sustainable development. As part of ethical consideration for research conduct at the University of KwaZulu Natal, we, therefore, request your kind response to this request through a formal permission letter. Please note that the interview will be conducted with some members of your community. We will administer an informed consent for approval by the interviewee before any discussion is conducted.

Thank You for being so co-operative,
