IPCI HOSTS SUCCESSFUL PUBLIC TALK FOR INTERNATIONAL DUO, SHEIKH MAHOMED HIJAB & DR HAMZA TZORTSIS FROM UK

Durban 'fortunate' to host public address by top UK defenders of Islam

Don't miss the opportunity to hear two famous defenders of Islam, Mohammed Hijab and Hamza Tzortzis, who have made their mark on the Muslim world, speak at Al-Qadim Reporters.

Two renowned Islamic scholars from the UK, Mohammed Hijab and Hamza Tzortzis, will be in Durban tomorrow (Thursday) for a public lecture to address some of the burning issues that threaten the Islamic way of life today namely "Liberalism, Feminism and LGBTQ+."

Commenting on the invitation of the scholars to South Africa, Mohammed Khan of the Islamic Propagation Centre International (IPCI) said Al-Qadim: "These two defend Islam on an academic platform and their skill sets are unique in the world to take on Liberalism, to take on LGBTQ+ to give the Islamic viewpoint to it and to take on secularism. You just have to watch Mohammed Hijab's debate on YouTube with the Islamophobic David Wood, to appreciate the quality of his discourse with Islam." The free public event will be held at the Al-Ansar Hall from 19:00 to 19:30pm. There will be an interactive question and answer session. The two young and dynamic intellectuals are from the Sapience Institute, and they are guests of Markaz Markaz Al-Fikr where Ammar in Montreal was Doctor of Philosophy.

Both men are famous public debaters and defenders of Islam with thousands of their own followers on social media platforms.

Mohammed Hijab is a Philosopher of Religion and the co-founder of Sapience Institute. His debates and discussions - representing the Islamic viewpoint philosophically, politically, and theologically are some of the most viewed and engaged in the world today. His formal qualifications include the following subjects: Quran, Hadith, Fiqh, Usul and Aqaida.

Hamza Tzortzis is regarded as a notable international public speaker, writer, and researcher on Islam, philosophy, and politics, co-founder, and CEO of the Sapience Institute. He is the author of "The Divine Reality: God, Islam, and the Mirage of Atheism."

Mohammed Hijab

Hamza Tzortzis

"To put things into perspective, in the first decade of the 21st century, the world was watching as - what is known as the new age atheism - was spreading and taking over our country after country and Christianity had basically succumbed to it and many scholars at the time felt that Islam was going to suffer the same fate and Allah (Exalted be He) had chosen many scholars from around the world to stand up to respond to the atheistic onslaught, and two of these Ulama, Mohammed Hijab and Hamza Tzortzis, were from among those great Islamic scholars who have changed the whole side of the discourse in the sense that after the impact of their writing, their debating, they inspiring young scholars in how to defend Islam, the landscape has changed to an extent where now the Islamic worldview is seen objectively in the world to be the strongest worldview."

"And this is down to a lot of the contributions they made as they took on the leading atheists of the time, for example the famous and famous debate that Hamza Tzortzis had with one of the leading scientists of the world, Lawrence Krauss, who eventually proved that no matter what science does it can never undermine truth of Islam - that was a truly Islamic debate."

defended Islam and Nabi (SAW) better in an extremely famous debate with David Wood who used to curse and vilify the Prophet (SAW) and that video has about 8 million views on YouTube, so these are extremely prolific and extremely famous people but at the same time they are on the ground, they are with the people, he is not just typical scholar who is into his books the whole day."
