MESSAGE FROM AMEER

As-Salaamu Alaikum, Bismillahir Rahmanir Rahim,

We are thankful to Almighty Allah for His assistance & blessing in our Dawah activities. And we would like to thank all our donors for their support. Alhumdullilah, we have made big strides in our Dawah activities in South Africa & abroad. To name some of our activities:

- We have extended our Dawah Outreaches to the Universities, Campuses, and colleges (UKZN, DUT, MUT, WITS, TUKKIES, UJ)
- The next activity we achieved was to have a fully comprehensive syllabus in comparative religion. It has been documented and used as our text for our CR Dawah courses which are held periodically at the Centre and our Zoom online presentations. The course is available to all Dawah institutions and individuals. The course contains details of Islam as compared to Christianity, Judaism, African Tradition Religion, Atheism, Hinduism and Modern Day Ideologies. Now that we have a 15 module curriculum available to anyone that needs it, we are able to fulfill popular demand for CR courses.
- Alhumdullilah, we were able to get into contact with Darul Uloom, some of which have decided to adopt it in the Darul Uloom course. We are so happy to find the Ulemah interested in our Dawah work, mainly due to the IPCI head of CR being an Aalim that specialises in Comparative religion. May Allah SWT help us to continue such possibilities in the Dawah/CR field.
- We have also adopted the Ahmed Deedat Annual Lecture Series (ADALS). Alhumdullilah, it was very successful. In fact this year it brought to the forefront, among other things, the importance of spirituality in Dawah. This was very visible when we had the Visionaries 3 days retreat in Drakensburg last year. It was spiritually uplifting for those who attended who hailed from all parts of South Africa and Southern Africa.
- There are many other important activities done at IPCI. The Visit to the Mosque for a Free Guided Tour is a flagship activity since 1958. This is now very popular at our Cape Town branch, where the majority of tourists come to see the Awal Mosque. Our offices in Cape Town are near the Awal Mosque in Dorp Street.
- The next important activity is the Dawah Quran project, which entails visiting Muslim owned businesses and talking to their employees about Islam. We also hand out Dawah material and Qurans to them, as well as conduct follow up visits to those who have questions and provide revert classes.
- Comparative Religion course at the Centre & online. This is done from time to time and involves training of Da'ees.
- Manning all our branches in Phoenix, Umlazi, Chatsworth, Port Shepstone, Polokwane, Cape Town,

Durban. The main Dawah Office is in central Durban. We supply each branch monthly with Dawah material & Qurans. We also supply Dawah material and Qurans to places like Nigeria, Namibia, Botswana, Swaziland, and other countries.

- Radio programs. The IPCI has two regular Radio shows in English and Zulu weekly. Apart from this, IPCI speakers and international guests are frequent contributors to Radio shows, panels and podcasts.
- Reaching out to domestic helpers and workers through our Dawah workers. We visit flats and body corporate's and request Muslim residents to get their domestic helpers together and allow us to speak to them about Islam. We have done quite a few so far but need Muslim body corporate chairpersons to contact us and facilitate the Dawah Outreaches in the gated communities. InshaaAllah.
- The most important function at the IPCI is printing and distributing of the Holy Quran and Islamic literature in different languages. The Centre is inundated with requests for same and we try to fulfill the requests of the numerous Dawah institutes and individuals that request from locally and abroad. This activity is in great demand and Alhumdullilah we are one of the biggest suppliers of Islamic books and Quran's in South Africa and abroad.

This is a short summary of our activities at the IPCI. This is made possible mainly from the donations and contributions from all our supporters.

May Allah SWT bless all our donors. May Allah SWT answer all your duas.

In conclusion we wish every donor a Blessed Eid and may Allah SWT accept all your Ibaadat done in the month of Ramadan.

Wa-Alaikum Salaam,

Dr Mahomed Khan
Ameer IPCI

RADIO PROGRAMS:

The IPCI hosts two regular weekly radio shows—one in English and one in Zulu—that focus on sharing the message of Islam with clarity and compassion. These shows serve as platforms for da'wah (invitation to Islam), offering listeners an opportunity to explore the principles of Islam, its teachings, and its relevance to contemporary life.

In addition to these shows, IPCI features knowledgeable speakers—both local and international—who are dedicated to spreading the beauty of Islam. They frequently contribute to radio programs, live panel discussions, and podcasts. Their contributions are aimed at fostering understanding, addressing misconceptions, and inviting people to reflect on the universal values of Islam.

Through these initiatives, IPCI seeks to create an inclusive and respectful space for discussions on spirituality and faith, helping to build bridges and inspire curiosity about the path of Islam.

REVERT CLASSES

One of the most successful outcomes of carrying out IPCI's main purpose of propagation of Islam with professionalism and excellence is the reversion to Islam by adherents of other faiths, including atheists and agnostics.

Our experience and research has shown that the process of reversion to Islam is a life-changing one, with profound challenges and thus needs to be handled with sensitivity and care. A critical success factor in assisting new reverts to Islam is effective training, coaching and mentoring by experienced Islamic workers. It is in this light that the IPCI's MUSLIM REVERTS PROGRAMME has been a flagship activity since its inception.
